

Black History Month

Planned Events

Saturday, Feb. 22, 6 p.m.

"Taste of Soulful Sounds," by Stacy J.

Lee College Performing Arts Center

"Taste of Soulful Sounds" is an immersive Black history experience that honors the rich legacy of African American contributions to global music and culture. Through an engaging blend of live performances, storytelling, and multimedia, this event chronicles the transformative impact African Americans have had on the world, birthing a "soulful movement" that transcends borders and generations.

Thursday, Feb. 27, 6-7:30 p.m.

Business Showcase

Rundell Hall Conference Center

Discover the creativity and innovation thriving in our community at the Business Showcase. Meet local entrepreneurs, explore their unique products and services, and learn how they're shaping Baytown's economic landscape. Come celebrate, support, and connect.

■

Live Chat

FIND A CAREER

My Next Move