Purpose

The purpose of this Student Conduct policy is to foster an environment of mutual respect, academic integrity, and personal growth while ensuring the safety and well-being of our campus community. This policy applies to all students, both on and off campus, and serves as a foundation for a successful college experience.

Definitions

Definitions of terms used in this policy shall be as follows.

Student Conduct Administrator

A “student conduct administrator” (SCA) is a college employee appointed by the president or her designee to process and resolve student conduct cases, which includes but is not limited to Title IX cases and bias and discrimination cases.

Student

A “student” shall mean an individual who is currently enrolled in the College District and any prospective or former student who has been accepted for admission or readmission.

Premises

The “premises” of the College District is defined as all real property over which the College District has possession and control, including off-site locations.

Standard of Evidence

The standard of evidence for determining if a violation has occurred is a preponderance of the evidence. This standard is met if the evidence shows that the alleged violation is more likely than not to have occurred.

Scholastic Dishonesty

“Scholastic dishonesty” shall include, but not be limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion.

“Cheating” shall include, but not be limited to:

1. Copying from another student’s test or class work;

8. Manipulating a test, assignment, or final course grades.

“Plagiarism” shall be defined as the appropriating, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another’s work and the unacknowledged submission or incorporation of it in one’s own written work.

“Collusion” shall be defined as the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work for fulfillment of course requirements.

Disorderly Conduct

“Disorderly conduct” shall include any of the following activities occurring on premises owned or controlled by the College District:

1. Behavior of a boisterous and tumultuous character such that there is a clear and present danger of alarming persons where no legitimate reason for alarm exists.
2. Interference with the peaceful and lawful conduct of persons under circumstances in which there is reason to believe that such conduct will cause or provoke a disturbance.
3. Violent and forceful behavior at any time such that there is a clear and present danger that free movement of other persons will be impaired.
4. Behavior involving personal abuse or assault when such behavior creates a clear and present danger of causing assaults or fights.
5. Violent, abusive, indecent, profane, boisterous, unreasonably loud, or otherwise disorderly conduct under circumstances in which there is reason to believe that such conduct will cause or provoke a disturbance.
6. Willful and malicious behavior that interrupts the speaker of any lawful assembly or impairs the lawful right of others to participate effectively in such assembly or meeting when there is reason to believe that such conduct will cause or provoke a disturbance.
7. Willful and malicious behavior that obstructs or causes the obstruction of any doorway, hall, or any other passageway in a College District building to such an extent that the employees, officers, and other persons, including visitors, having business with the College District are denied entrance into, exit from, or free passage in such building.

Sanction

A “sanction” is a status that is assigned to a student or an action that a student is required to perform as a result of either accepting
