

Women's History Month 2024

In March we honor and celebrate women who have shaped history and who continue to create a brighter future.

Join us for a variety of virtual and hands-on activities to engage, challenge, and enrich students, employees, and the public.

Planned Events

Sat., March 1 — Living Tapestries

5-7 p.m. in the PAC Art Gallery

Join us at the opening reception for artist Margaret Smithers-Crump's exhibition. Snacks will be provided.

Mon., March 3 — Envision Your Future!

Your Future's Un-board-lievable! Join us 11 a.m.-3 p.m. in the Student Center to create your vision board and stick to what matters! Snacks provided.

Thu.-Fri., March 6-7 — The Lesson

Our Drama Department will perform Eugene Ionesco's one-act play in the PAC's main hall at 7 p.m. both nights. It's sure to spark conversations.

Wed., March 19 — Her Story in Motion! Women's Volleyball Demo and Workshop

Join our Women's Volleyball team at 1 p.m. for introductions and a skills workshop! Location TBA.

Tue., March 25 — Living Tapestries Artist Talk

Join artist Margaret Smithers-Crump 1-3 p.m. in the PAC art gallery and lobby as she discusses her work. Snacks provided.

Fri., March 28 — Margaret Smithers-Crump Artist Workshop

Join artist Margaret Smithers-Crump 10 a.m.-1 p.m. in MHC Room W13 for a hands-on artist workshop. Snacks provided.

Thu., April 3 — Celebration of Punk Women

Lee College's English faculty member David Ensminger interviews Linda Younger, a member of the iconic, long-standing band Mydollz from Houston, whose legacy has shape generations of women. The event takes place 12:30-1:30 p.m. in the Covestro

Conference room in the Student Center. Copies of Ensminger's book Punk Women: 40 years of Musicians Who Built Punk Rock will be available.
